Choose your title carefully - make sure that it accurately describes what your talk will cover.

Thoughts on Telco Cloud Native Evolution and Open Source Practice

Abstract *

Provide an abstract that briefly summarizes your proposal. Provide as much information as possible about what the content will include. Do not be vague.

This is the description that will be posted on the website schedule if your talk is selected, so be sure to spell check, use complete sentences (and not just bullet points), and write in the third person (use your name instead of "I").

With the maturity of 5G and the development of edge computing, operators have gradually transformed into network service providers. Providing agile, robust and flexible network cloud is operators' primary goal. Currently, together with vendors, operators are researching on cloud native methodologies and technologies, such as container, microservice and DevOps, and pushing network cloud evolving towards cloud native.

In this session, Qihui will introduce China Mobile's thought and practice on network cloud native evolution, clarify the evolution requirements. Based on CNCF and XGVela projects, she will also analyze the open source implementation and use case of PaaS, NF microservices, CNFs and other cloud native technical points.

Audience*

Describe who the audience is and what you expect them to gain from your presentation.

1. Telco operators, vendors, cloud providers can attend.
2. Audience can know about cloud native evolution requirements from operators' perspective, and also have some insights of CNF cloud native design, PaaS capabilities usage (from CNCF and XGVela).

Have you or anyone else given this presentation before?

No

These events are currently being planned as in-person events in Los Angeles, CA from October 11-12. Please select the option that best fits how you'd anticipate participating if chosen to speak.

Responses Selected:

I plan to speak in-person if travel and state/country guidelines allow

If your session is accepted, would you be open to our PR team contacting you about speaking with media and press onsite?

Responses Selected:

Maybe - please follow-up with me closer to the event

Additional Details & Speaker Agreements

The Program Committee reviews many proposals, and having extra resources helps to gauge the speaker's expertise and ability to deliver a talk effectively.

Please share a video or audio recording of a previous talk you've given. If you don't have a previous talk recording to submit simply create a quick YouTube video of yourself speaking for a couple of minutes.
